

WIMBLEDON LAWN TENNIS
MUSEUM

Welcome to the Wimbledon Lawn
Tennis Museum

The Museum is within the grounds of
The All England
Lawn Tennis
Club

You will arrive to the Museum via Gate 4

A member of our security team will ask to check your bag on arrival - this is to keep everyone safe
on site

This is the entrance to the Wimbledon Lawn
Tennis Museum

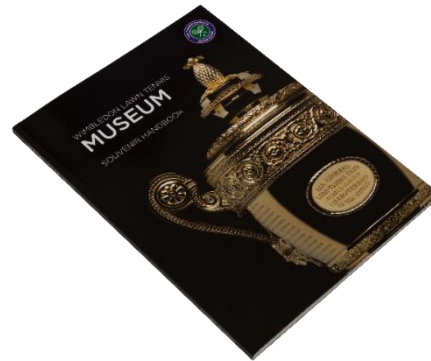

This is where you buy tickets/check-in

Things to help you

Free audio guide

Souvenir guide book available to purchase

Ear defenders for children and adults

Useful places

Stairs to Museum

Lift

Toilets

Meeting points

Tour Meeting
Point

Centre Court Meeting Point

You will be met by a member of staff at either one of these places who will accompany you on your visit

People you will meet

Security Guards

Retail Assistants

Visitor Assistants

Food Service
Assistants

The museum is on one, flat level

You can look at objects in glass cases

You can use touch screens

You can dress up

You can play

You can visit the virtual reality experience

You can visit the free special exhibition

There are films, commentaries and sounds that play on loop – like this hologram of John McEnroe, a famous tennis player

We keep lighting low to preserve our collection

Some sections are bright and noisy – such as the players' tunnel

Other things to do

Visit the Shop

Visit the Wingfield Cafe located opposite the Museum

WIMBLEDON LAWN TENNIS MUSEUM

We hope you enjoy your visit!

