

DRESS CODE

SUITABLE DRESS

- The dress standard for gentlemen is a lounge suit or tailored jacket, shirt, tie and trousers.
- Members are encouraged to remind their male guests that ties are required whilst in the Members' Enclosure.
- Ladies are expected to dress to a similar standard and are encouraged to dress in smart daywear. They may wear jumpsuits, trouser suits and tailored shorts of modest length falling just above the knee if they wish. Dresses and skirts should also be of modest length, defined as falling just above the knee or longer. Smart, open-toe shoes are also welcome.
- Shoes must be clean and smart; sports shoes including tennis and running shoes will not be permitted.
- National costume and religious requirements such as a clerical collar are acceptable.

UNSUITABLE DRESS

Guests are asked to refrain from wearing:

- T-shirts, bare midriffs, jeans or denim of any type or colour (including white), leggings, playsuits, miniskirts, zipper jackets and hoodies.
- Sports shoes including tennis and running shoes, flip flops or sandals.

CHILDREN

- Children are expected to meet a similar standard of dress when entering the Members' Enclosure.
- Boys aged 11 and under are not required to wear a jacket or tie but must wear a collared shirt (this may be short-sleeved) and dress trousers.
- Girls are asked to dress to a similar standard.
- Children are also asked not to wear denim, sports shoes, or flip-flops.
- School uniform is permitted.
